Successful launch of Bureau Veritas inaugural bond issue

Neuilly-sur-Seine, France, May 15, 2012 – Bureau Veritas has today completed the placement of a 500 million euro bond issue. This inaugural 5-year unrated bond issued with a coupon of 3.75% has been successfully placed in a volatile market environment.

This transaction was largely oversubscribed and reflects investors' confidence in the strengths of Bureau Veritas' business model and credit profile.

It enables Bureau Veritas to diversify its financing sources and to support its growth strategy, in-line with the BV2015 strategic plan.

HSBC, Natixis, Société Générale, BNP Paribas and CM-CIC acted as Joint Bookrunners on this bond issue.
