AlliedBarton Security Services Named as a 2016 Leadership Excellence Award Winner

CONSHOHOCKEN, PA – February 9, 2016 – AlliedBarton Security Services, the industry’s premier provider of highly trained security personnel, has been named a Leadership Excellence award winner by Leadership Excellence Essentials magazine for the outstanding use of a learning management system. This award recognizes organizations that have successfully driven adoption and achieved measurable results from the deployment of their learning management system.

“Learning is a vital component of our leadership development programs and we’re honored to be recognized by Leadership Excellence Essentials magazine,” said Jim Gillece, Senior Vice President of Human Capital Management, Chief People Officer, AlliedBarton. “The AlliedBarton|EDGE® is critical to our ability to foster internal talent for leadership roles, and unparalleled engagement and service excellence. We’re incredibly proud of everyone who has made this award possible.”

For more than 30 years, Leadership Excellence has identified and recognized the top leadership organizations and their strategies and solutions in a yearly ranking by appropriate category. All of the 2016 award winners will be published in the printed edition of February’s Leadership Excellence Essentials magazine.
