

Stahl expands distributor agreement with Univar for Central Europe

Waalwijk, 5 April 2016 – Since March 2016, Stahl enlarges its agreement with independent distributor Univar. As from now, the company is also in charge of the promotion of Stahl Polymers in Czech Republic and Slovakia. In January 2016, Univar was already appointed for all promotional activities in entire Eastern Europe. The appointment is fully in line with Stahl’s premise: think global, act local.

Libor Konfèek will promote Stahl’s business in Czech Republic and Slovakia, focusing on Stahl Polymers. Libor Konfèek has ample of experience in the coatings and polymers industry and has an extensive network in both countries.

Countries in which Univar takes care of the promotional activities are: Czech Republic, Slovakia Poland, Romania, Hungary, Austria, Serbia, Slovenia, Bosnia Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Hungary and Montenegro.

“This extension of the current agreement will allow us to serve our customers in Czech Republic and Slovakia top quality, environmentally friendly products. This development is very well in line with the Stahl Polymers growth strategy for Europe”, comments Raymond Bakker, Global Business Director Stahl Polymers.
