

Bureau Veritas ranked as preferred global brand for environment, health & safety verification services by independent analyst firm

Neuilly-sur-Seine, France, October 23, 2015 – Bureau Veritas is pleased to announce that it has been ranked the top brand for environment, health and safety compliance and verification in the Global EH&S Survey 2015. The survey, which analyzes leading service providers, is published by independent research firm Verdantix.

This survey aimed at measuring how large organizations perceive compliance & verification brands, and benchmark levels of awareness and engagement for delivering compliance and verification services, specifically certification and verification of EH&S systems and data. Verdantix interviewed over 300 EH&S decision-makers representing 21 industries and 15 geographies.

According to the report published by Verdantix, Bureau Veritas has the highest level of engagement for EH&S related services across the 16 providers included in the study. Bureau Veritas also has the highest level of positive perception by respondents. Bureau Veritas already topped the list in terms of engagement and positive perception levels in Verdantix' 2014 EH&S survey.

"Helping our clients identify, prevent and reduce HSE and quality risks is Bureau Veritas' core mission. Our top ranking in this report recognizes, for the second year in a row, our constant commitment to service and strong technical expertise and capabilities worldwide in all industries. It also reflects our ability to provide solutions to issues at the top of the agenda for decision makers, as well as the credibility that our brand brings to our clients' HSE performance" commented Marc Boissonnet, Senior Vice President in charge of Bureau Veritas Group Communication and Strategic Accounts.
