

Christian Methe Named New CEO of AuthentiDate International AG

Düsseldorf, 4 February 2014 – The Supervisory Board of AuthentiDate International AG, a member of exceet Group, has appointed Mr Christian Methe as new Chief Executive Officer. In addition to business development responsibilities, he will assume management of the enterprise's sales and consulting segments.

Christian Methe has already been successfully active with a variety of business models for 25 years and possesses broad expertise in the corporate development field.

Having started his career as Managing Director of an IT and systems provider, Christian Methe then focused his skills on repositioning and restructuring enterprises. In the capacity of Managing Director and Managing or Supervisory Board member, he was responsible for business development at a series of reputable companies, including Innovatis AG, Exigen Deutschland GmbH, AEMtec GmbH and PPC-Card Systems GmbH.

Christian Methe successfully helped guide the strategic development of exceet Group in various management and steering functions since 2008. In May 2012, he took the helm of exceet Group SE's Embedded Security Solutions segment. The segment bundles the products and services of AuthentiDate International AG.

“I am convinced that 2014 will be an outstanding year for the Embedded Security Solutions segment. Customized security solutions for clients from sectors such as medical and health care, industrial automation, financial services, avionics and the public sector will play an ever more important role on the market, as will IT security consulting and secure cloud services. I look forward to the task of driving this development”, says Mr Methe.

As CEO of AuthentiDate International AG, Christian Methe now assumes responsibility for our global growth and yield-generating programs as well as the continued technological development of the enterprise portfolio.
